November 2023 – January 2024

- Preparatory reading on European Policies in Lifelong Learning;
- Research Country Report on your topic for the comparative group work;
- Country Group team building;
- First approach to research work methods;
- Online webinars (2)
- Online tutorial on transnational essays

05 - 09 February 2024

Theoretical lectures on European Educational Politics, Policies and Strategies in Adult Education and LLL:

understand the macro-meso and micro context

Field Visits with adult education providers in Würzburg:
observation of German agencies of Adult Education

International role play and reflection:

know the various policy models and practices on adult education in Europe and compare it with global trends

12 – 16 February 2024

During the second week, the participants will work in comparative groups divided by nine different topics regarding adult education and lifelong learning.

The affiliation to the comparative groups can be pre-selected and the transnational essay will refer to that topic.

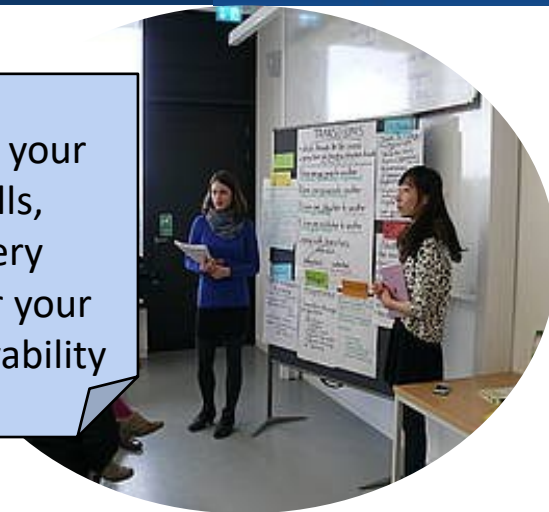

On the last day of the Adult Education Academy, the results of the comparisons will be presented to all other groups.

You can study and reflect in an international context with students from very different background

You can train your English skills, which is very important for your future employability
